Description

Vintage, brass, pocket trumpet, table lamp, 19½" high A fun piece of signature and conversation mood lighting Bore brass instrument pitched in Bb, used in brass bands, concert bands and occasionally orchestras.

Inspired by the Besson pocket trumpet which was made in 1911, note this was not made by Besson who were renowned for their brass instruments and opened a London Branch in 1851 which was taken over by Boosey & Hawkes in the 1940's. The brass has an aged, oxidised patina which could be polished into a bright shiny surface if desired PRICING £1,500
