

A late-18th century Dutch, delftware butter tub and cover, marked 'A P', the registered mark of Anth. Pennis, from "De Twee Scheepjes" (The two little ships).

Sold

Description

The flat cover with a similar band and with radiating panels of flowers around the moulded stylised stem and flower finial. The body with flowers on a seeded band between blue lines and with pierced shell and foliage handles. In original condition, The bottom marked "AP". Probably Dutch, circa 1770. Reference: "AP". The registered mark of Anth. Pennis, from "De Twee Scheepjes"(The two little ships), working from 1759/82.
2035565 £ 1,