

A small mid-18th century delftware plate

Sold

REF: 10330

Description

Decorated with a baluster-shaped vase filled with blossoms and peacock feathers set amongst rockwork, chrysanthemum and cherry blossoms within a double circle centre. The rim with radial brush marks on the edge. Decorated in blue on a bluish-greyish glaze. Hairline crack to rim. Probably London, second quarter of the 18th century.

1044325