Description

A large vintage teak table desk, writing table, dressing table or side table. Measures: 6 feet 2 ½"long, large

The form of this table is extremely versatile and it can function as a desk or writing table, a dressing table or a side table. It is elegant and practical to sit at and large enough to work at and have files and papers to hand or for putting on make-up and jewelry with ample space for cosmetics and boxes. The heart shaped escutcheon is a charming feature. It is a timeless design that harmonizes with early furniture and period interiors, modern or contemporary.

The top in two sections with a moulded edge. The shaped frieze fitted with two drawers each with original brass handles, heart escutcheons and locks. Standing on elegant baluster and ball turned legs. Excellent original color and patina.
