Description

17th century oak armchair re-upholstered in navy faux faur

The faux fur creates a cosy, funky, fun, modern, individual, interpretation of a classic 17th century armchair It also injects a baronial character to the armchair The chair has characteristic scroll arms, baluster-turnings, 'H' stretcher and is sturdy, comfortable and suitable for regular use The back legs have been tipped and the front toes replaced due to wear which is common.
