Description

This sofa epitomises elegance, opulence and comfort which characterise the interiors and pieces supplied and sourced by Facella Sensi della Penna one of the iconic international designers of the late 21st century working for royalty, public institutions and private collectors.

Upholstered in a sophisticated, opulent, layered scheme of red velvet with inset cut-velvet damask panels on the back and seats with rushed velvet edges on the seats. Custom-made passmenterie, gold and crimson piping, braid and crimson deep bullion fringe.

Facella Sensi's style is characterised by the classical 18th century Roman style and his work is of the highest quality using sumptuous fabrics, beautiful detailing, elegant drapery and Fine antiques underpinned by a basic precept of comfort.

Condition - hardly used, virtually as new, minimal wear see images.
