

Table Dining Writing Library Boardroom Teak 20-24-seat, 1950, 12ft long 4ft wide

Sold

REF: 11388

Height: 81 cm (31.9")

Width: 366 cm (144.1")

Depth: 122 cm (48")

Description

An exceptionally, rare & massive, 20-24-seat, Mid-Century Modern, solid, teak, table - Exceptionally rare size, very few period tables are 4ft wide; Classic modern, uncluttered, design showcasing the rich lustrous color and beautiful figuring of the solid teak top - Versatile, can be used as a dining table, desk, library or board room table, can easily be reduced in height if required - Classic modern, pared-down design with clean lines - Original teak top with beautiful figuring. Teak is sought after for its hardwearing nature and its rich, warm red/brown color. - No stretchers so the design is uncluttered and the table very comfortable to sit at - Retaining original massive iron fittings and screws - Provenance: Family collection by descent, important grade 1 listed house, acquired directly from the designer, whose name has become lost through family descent - Designer currently unknown, inventory research in-hand to trace. The teak plank top made from 3 wide planks of solid teak, faced with long cleated ends. Standing on a solid teak square legs. The teak is beautifully figured with exceptional, original rich color and patina. Measures: Length 366 cm, 12 ft. Depth 122 cm, 4ft, (cleats 38 cm, 15inches) Height 81 cm, 32 inches Top thickness top 4 cm, 1½ inches.