A pair of mid-18th century delftware flower bricks

Sold

Howgego Historic & Modern 07974 149 912
lucy@howgegohistoricandmodern.com howgegohistoricandmodern.com

REF: 10546

Description

The tops perforated with eleven small holes each side of a circular central hole. Each side with a sailing boat and ducks on water with sponged trees on an island in the background. The ends with sponged trees. Decorated in blue on a pale blue glaze. In original condition. Probably Liverpool, third quarter of the 18th century.

Howgego Historic & Modern 07974 149 912
lucy@howgegohistoricandmodern.com howgegohistoricandmodern.com