

William Wilson Whitefriars Glass Vases Set 3 Amber Sapphire
Seagreen

Sold

REF: 11119

Height: 15.5 cm (6.1")

Diameter: 21 cm (8.3")

Description

William J Wilson (b.1914) for white friars: Private collection of art deco amber, sapphire, seagreen vases; 1937 & 1938 Iconic Art Deco form, ornament & color in exceptional original condition - Whitefriars Glass Company was established in 1680 becoming a world leader in stained glass windows and diversifying in the 1850s to design pieces and table glass working closely with leading architects and designers - Wilson joined Whitefriars in 1928 as a Designer, becoming Art Director and then, in 1950, Managing Director, retiring after 45 years with the firm in 1973. - Characteristic of the period between World War I & II, these vases are colorful with heavy optic moulding. - Can be sold individually. Amber vase with applied swag, patent 9004, 1938 Height 19cm, 7 ½ inches, diameter 15 ½ cm. Sapphire vase with 4 bosses, patent 9121, 1938. Height 21cm, 8 14/ inches, diameter 15 ½ cm Seagreen vase with 4 bosses, patent 9121, m1937. Height 21cm, 8 14/ inches, diameter 15 ½ cm.